NUMBER 294.

FINALLY REPEALED.

IT IS WIPED OUT OF EXISTENCE.

The House Votes on Voorhees' Measure, Indorsing It by 191 Yeas to 94 Nays. Cleveland Will Sign It and Congress Adjourn.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—There were but comparatively few spectators in the galleries when the house met, but the attendance of representatives showed a large majority present.

At 12:12 house bill No. 1 (the Wilson repeal bill), with the Voorhees amendment, was laid before the house and the amendment read by the clerk.

Immediately Mr. Wilson (Dem., W. Va.) moved that the senate amendment be concurred in and on that motion demanded the previous question.

An effort was made to secure the yeas and nays on a motion by Mr. Bryan that when the house adjourned it be until Friday; but only 28 members rose—not a sufficient number. Another motion by Mr. Ryan to adjourn was voted down—23 to 185.

Mr. Bland said he had hoped that the bill would be permitted to proceed under the rules without asking for the previous question.

Mr. Wilson of West Virginia said that the reason he felt compelled to ask that the previous question be now ordered was that if he permitted the bill to go to debate the way would be open for all sorts of amendments, and that he would lose control of it.

The weary round of motions to adjourn to a certain day and to take a recess continued until 1:15, when the speaker took the reins in his hands and put the motion on the demand for the previous question and declared it carried.

Then Mr. Bland, taking a stand in the center of the Democratic side, presented his amendment to revive the act of 1837, providing for free coinage, which was read at the desk. He said that the moneyed interests of the country, to force the pending legislation, had precipitated a panic.

The Democratic party, in previous contests, had stood almost solidly in favor of limited coinage of silver. He offered the amendment as the platform upon which the Democratic party of the west and south would make its fight in the future. With the revival of free coinage prosperity would return, and we can afford to wait. All the legislation forced before congress, Mr. Bland asserted, had been a stock jobbing operation; and it was but right, in his opinion, that the stocks should fall as the result of it.

At 1:53 the speaker put the question on Mr. Bland's motion to recommit the bill, with instructions to add his amendment reviving the free coinage act of 1837, resulting: Yeas, 109; nays, 174.

The motion was then put on concurring in the senate amendment, with the result noted above.

The detailed vote on the concurrence in the senate and the final passage of the repeal bill by the house is as follows:

Repeal Bill a Law.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—At 4:20 p. m. the repeal bill was handed to President Cleveland. There were present with him Secretary Carlisle, Attorney General Olney and Private Secretary Thurber. The president read the bill aloud and, at 4:25, signed it.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

One Man Tries to Kill Two Others but Falls in His Attempt.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Edward Cool, a farmhand employed by Trustee Arnold of Washington township, went to Buck Creek village, six miles north of this city, yesterday, and attempted to assassinate Luke Lowe and Obediah Halle. He entered Lowe's house, and without a word of warning shot at Lowe, the bullet striking a rib just below the heart. Mrs. Lowe was so close to the assassin that her dress caught fire from the pistol-flush.

Cool then walked out and started for Halle's saloon, passing his father on the way, who asked "What are you doing with that revolver?" With the remark, "Let me alone," he entered the store and fired at Halle, the ball striking a rib. Halle clinched with Cool, and with the assistance of a bystander handed Cool over to Constable Connell.

By this time a crowd had gathered, and the constable fearing violence to the prisoner, started to take him to a place of safety, but had not proceeded far, when Cool drew a knife and made two vicious jabs at his throat, but failed to cut either the jugular or windpipe. Medical aid was rendered and Cool was brought to this city and locked up. His wounds are not dangerous. Lowe's injuries are not serious, but Halle's are of a dangerous nature.

GLASS FACTORY DESTROYED

Fire Causes a Heavy Financial Loss With But Little Insurance.

ELWOOD, Ind., Nov. 2.—One of the most destructive fires in the history of this city occurred yesterday. An alarm was turned in at 4 o'clock, when the Elwood, a window glass factory, employing 300 hands was discovered to be burning. The immense plant was situated outside the limits of the water works lines and could not be reached by the department. The fire originated in the mixing room and in 20 minutes after being discovered the whole building was ablaze.

The plant is a total wreck and its employees are thrown out of work just in the beginning of winter. The property loss will amount to $50,000 with only $6,000 insurance on the buildings. Ten thousand dollars' worth of glass was destroyed. This was one of the leading factories of the city and has only been in operation two years. The factory came here from Bellaire, O., and was owned by Rodefer, Hoffman & Sons, and will probably not be rebuilt.

Searching for the Truth.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Bud Stone, wife of the Wratten murderer, was taken to Jeffersonville yesterday afternoon by Deputy Prosecutor Hastings, as it is believed that she may influence her husband to tell a straight story concerning the inhuman crime he committed. There is no doubt in the minds of anyone now but that Stone has lied on the others and is guilty himself of the murder, but they will not be released until the matter is thoroughly sifted.

Struck by a Train.

NEWPORT, Mo., Nov. 2.—As J. H. Young, his wife and daughter Jennie, aged 18, of Corinth, were crossing the Dexter railroad with a double team yesterday, at Young's crossing, one mile north of the village, they were struck by the Dover train going south. Miss Young was instantly killed. Mrs. Young was fatally injured and Mr. Young had a leg and several ribs broken. The horses were killed.

Public Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The public debt statement shows that the net increase in the public debt during October was $5,141,058. Cash in the treasury, $729,447,014.

SOLEMN AND IMPOSING.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of Carter H. Harrison.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—With the solemn pomp and imposing ceremonies befitting the interment of the former chief magistrate of the world's fair city and his pitifully dramatic fate, Carter H. Harrison's body was escorted to Graceland cemetery Wednesday by an immense throng of sorrowing citizens. Tenderly the remains were borne from the black draped and flower-scented corridor of the city hall, where they had rested in state and placed in the funeral car. Through the great crowd that had gathered to see the murdered mayor's last leave-taking of the scene of his ardent labors in behalf of the city he loved, the black car slowly passed and took its place in the waiting procession.

Out from the center of the city the great procession marched across the river and to the beautiful Church of the Epiphany, near the late executive's home. All along the line of march the people, with sad faces and bared heads, watched the sombre column and about the church a throng as great as that which had been about the city hall had gathered.

From the time the mayor's body was placed in the city hall Tuesday a continuous procession has moved through the corridor and past the bier. For 24 hours the line remained unbroken, and when the corridor was of necessity abruptly closed to the public a great crowd still remained in line awaiting a last look at the features of the dead executive. When the corridors were closed it was estimated that fully 100,000 people had filed past the vast body.

MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Part of a Bridge Falls With Disastrous Results.

HAMILTON, O., Nov. 2.—William Scheid, a bridge hand employed on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis Miami river bridge at this city, received fatal injuries. An inch and a quarter rope which held a 500-pound bridge "strut" in position, broke and the huge metal affair came crashing down upon the unfortunate man. Scheid was knocked from his position on a lower part of the bridge and sent whirling to the bottom of the river, over 25 feet below. In the fall Scheid was caught partially between the falling "strut" and another part of the bridge and further mangled.

Scheid was taken in the police patrol to Mercy hospital and Dr. George Truse called, who pronounced the injuries fatal. Scheid's head is crushed, hip broken and shoulder crushed. The bridge reconstruction had so far progressed without accident and would have been complete in a few days. Scheid lives at the corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets in this city, is 20 years of age and single. His parents are prostrated because of the affair. Only last night Scheid was the guest of the gay at a large masquerade party at the Hamilton music hall and is a very popular young citizen of this city.

The Last Sad Rites.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 2.—The funeral services of the late Very Rev. Edward Sorin, founder of the university of Notre Dame and superior general of the Congregation of the Holy Cross, will occur at the Church of the Sacred Heart, Notre Dame, Friday forenoon. The office of the dead will be said at 9 o'clock, followed at 10 by solemn requiem mass with Right Rev. Joseph Kathmacher, bishop of the Fort Wayne diocese, as celebrant, assisted by the prominent priests of Notre Dame. The sermon will be delivered by Archbishop Elder of Cincinnati. The remains will be interred in the community cemetery, between those of the late President Thomas E. Walsh and Father Alexis Granger.

Precautions Against Smallpox.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 2.—The new strict order of the state board of health, regarding vaccination of school children, has caused commotion in boards of education, and Secretary Probst is overwhelmed with inquiries about it. He says the rule has been enforced in all the large cities for several years. The board is simply extending it to the towns. Several towns ask what is to be done in case a parent refuses to permit children to be vaccinated. They can not be arrested under the truancy law, they say, if they send their children to school and they are not received. But Dr. Probst holds that they can be arrested under the truancy law under these circumstances.

A Young Woman Leaps From a Train.

DECATUR, Ind., Nov. 2.—As Chicago and Erie passenger train No. 8, due here about 8 o'clock p. m., passed through here two hours late, Mary Brughman, the 18-year-old daughter of County Recorder Banghman, jumped from the train as it was crossing St. Mary's river. The train was running at a high rate of speed, and the woman rolled down a 30-foot embankment. She is fatally injured. The cause of her act at self-destruction is unknown.

Told His Wife Who Did It.

CORYDON, Ind., Nov. 2.—Gus Marsh was shot from ambush while riding along a public highway in Heth township Monday night. He is yet alive, but his face and head are full of shot and he cannot live. The assassin used a shotgun and fired both barrels. Marsh told his wife who did the shooting, and instructed her not to divulge the names until he either died or recovered. Marsh is a lawyer.

PERU, Ind., Nov. 2.—A terrible case of fiendishness comes from Bunker Hill, this county. Drunken loafers poured coal oil over the clothing of James McDonald, an old man, and lighting it, burning the old man nearly to death. His condition is critical.

THE PURCHASE OF SILVER.

An Englishman Says London Has Prayed For Us to Stop.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A Washington special to a morning paper gives an interview with Moreton Frewen, the English bimetalist, who is now a guest of one of the members of the British legation. Mr. Frewen says:

"If the price of silver bullion falls, as I expect will be the case, that drags down the exchange rates with the far east, which are already at a snapping point, and we shall have a panic before the new year, a panic you will feel in every corner of this continent."

"Then you don't favor the view that the repeal of the act will bring buying orders from London to Wall street?"

"No. London will be a seller for a long time to come. We are in great trouble in Australia and in India. Our export trade with China, Singapore and South America is already paralyzed by the fall in the rates of silver exchange. London has been praying that you will stop your silver purchases, thinking that then your stock market may recover so that she may send you home your securities realized at higher prices. We are in no position to buy; the great English manufacturing fortunes have suffered terribly. When we in England have financial troubles, times are bad and prices are depressed, so that your exports to England fall off and your imports remaining the same, gold leaves you. To borrow gold in England and to bring it here inevitably turns the balance of trade against this country. It would turn it even in the face of a great harvest; so that the gold begins to flow back again on the nearest ship."

Austria is trying to get gold and hold it in this way. Weckherle, her finance minister, is an intelligent man, but knows nothing whatsoever about the theory of the foreign exchanges. Mr. Goschen told him three years since that, while Austria could borrow gold, that she could never keep it except under lock and key, and it is still all under lock and key, but gold is already at a premium in the dual monarchy. Unlock the treasury doors and it will disappear at once. And you here will discover also that, with wages and prices in England falling by leaps and bounds to try to bring British gold here, is merely to pour water in a sieve."

ATMOSPHERE SPREADING.

Several Cranks Discovered at Wheeling, West Virginia.

WHEELING, Nov. 2.—The atmospheric or other conditions which are inflaming the cranks of the country have struck this city. Monday it was only good luck that prevented two murders by this class of usually "harmless lunatics." Tuesday "Mag" Robinson, a negro, entered Dr. Stillyards' office and asked for treatment. The doctor turned his back a minute whereupon the woman drew a hatchet from under her cloak and struck him on the head. Fortunately it was a glancing blow, and a lump like a billiard ball was the result. The doctor disarmed the woman and turned her over to the police. She explained her act by saying that she was the spook of a woman Dr. Stillyard had poisoned two weeks ago. The doctor had never seen her before.

A week ago a dynamite cartridge was found in the city hall, and but for the forethought of the janitress would have blown the building sky high. The police have been looking for the dynamiter and yesterday arrested George Hoeble, another harmless lunatic. Hoeble was fired out of the White House at Washington twice, once while trying to see Mr. Harrison and again while hunting Mr. Cleveland. Within a week he has written to every city and county official, every pastor and several policemen, threatening all with death.

Tuesday Rev. Dr. Swope received a letter saying he could preach one more sermon, and if it was not satisfactory the writer would blow up the church. A letter to Officer Moran threatened to cut his throat on sight. These letters caused Hoeble's arrest while he was prowling about Moran's house. He will be sent to an asylum.

POTTER PALMER'S GIFT.

The Ladies Went Fairly Beside Themselves When They Heard of It.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Potter Palmer has given $200,000 to build a woman's memorial building on the lake front. This fact was announced by his wife as the crowning end of the closing ceremony in the woman's building at the fair. The gift so completely nonplused the board of lady managers that for more than a minute the audience was hushed.

Then the enthusiasm broke out with a wild huzza. Those on the stage rushed to Mrs. Palmer and grasped her hands and fell upon her neck. The scattering men cried "Bravo!" and for five minutes the sepulchral sadness of the funeral occasion was loudly broken with cheers for the benefactor and shouts for his wife. It has now become quite the fashion to be princely generous toward the people and the Chicagoans are beginning to cry long live the commercial kings.

The Midwinter Exposition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Governor Markham is beginning to receive responses to his invitation to the governors of all states to publicly notice the California midwinter exposition. Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania writes that the people of his state will gladly co-operate in contributing to the success of the exposition, and Governor Richards of Montana says he will recommend a liberal attendance on the part of the Montanians. The main buildings at the fair grounds are rising with astonishing rapidity, and the whole coast is more enthusiastic than ever over the project.

BUSINESS BETTER.

The Dry Goods Trade Begins to Look Up.

IMPROVEMENT ALL AROUND.

The New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Advertiser Give a Very Encouraging Review of the Dry Goods Trade—The Passage of the Repeal Bill Having Its Effects.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, in its weekly review of the dry goods trade, says:

The week closes with an improved all around tone. The passage of the repeal bill through the senate has put an end to many weeks of anxiety and weary waiting, and the relief felt, although confined to sentiment as yet, is expected to express itself from now forward in a gradual expansion of business.

This is less likely to be seen in the balance of the fall trade than in making provision for spring requirements, as there have been many indications of late that a considerable amount of buying has been held back.

So far as the past week's business is concerned, the only new feature of importance has been the greater readiness on the part of some of the most confident buyers to place orders for spring lines, and an increased business for future delivery has been done in cotton and woolen and worsted dress fabrics.

Staple cottons have continued in little better than hand-to-mouth demand for home trade, but export grades have sold well. In clothing woollens business has proved quite as disappointing as in any recent week. Prices of cotton goods are generally steady and quotations have remained unaltered. The general financial condition of trade is favorably reported upon.

Collections on all hands have proved decidedly satisfactory, and a marked abatement of uneasiness in the woolen goods department regarding accruing liabilities is noted. Business in staple cottons is generally reported fully equal to the preceding week, but rarely is an increase thereon recorded.

A DYING PEOPLE.

Traveler Brigham Prophesies the Future of South America.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Nov. 2.—Edward M. Brigham, the traveler and lecturer of this city, has returned from an extended trip through South America. The object of his trip was archaeological and ethnological study and an investigation of the old civilizations and the social and political conditions of both the present and the past people of the countries.

He visited Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador and down the Napo river to the Amazon and thence to the Atlantic. One result of his observation from this and previous trips through South America is that the descendants of the Spaniards are a degenerated and decaying race, and will die out in time. He says that the only race that is successful in the struggle of life is the Anglo-Saxon and it will take the Anglo-Saxon to redeem and develop the countries of South America.

EIGHT HOURS.

Boston Carpenters Finally Win Their Battle.

BOSTON, Nov. 2.—On and after today the 4,500 carpenters of Boston will work but eight hours per day. The eight-hour day has been in controversy between the carpenter builders and the union carpenters of this city since May 1, 1886, during which time there have been two strikes of several weeks in each instance.

Throughout the entire contention the union carpenters have never lost hope of ultimately securing their object. In February last the carpenters took up the issue for a third time, and instead of preparing for a strike, all their energies were devoted to securing recognition; also, a conference with representatives of that organization. On July 16 the concession was made and went into effect today.

PLUNGED INTO THE RIVER.

Five Persons Drowned in an Electric Car Casualty.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 2.—An electric car plunged off Madison street bridge into the Willamette river. A heavy fog was prevailing and the draw was open for the passage of steamboats. The car contained about 15 passengers, 10 of whom escaped by jumping, but the remaining five were drowned. Two of the bodies that have been recovered have not yet been identified. The president of the road, conductor and motorman are under arrest.

Called on Extra Force.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Because of the great crowds down town to view the funeral procession of the dead mayor, Sheriff Gilbert became alarmed for the safety of Murderer Prendergast and, fearing the vengeance of the throngs, asked for additional guards for the jail. A large number of officers were detailed.

Claims Self-Defense.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Lieutenant Many, who killed Captain Hedburg at Fort Sheridan, will have his case tried by the criminal courts. The testimony makes out a case of self-defense.

A Wolf Story.

TACOMA, Nov. 2.—Private advices just received here state that 20 men were eaten alive by wolves at Shensi Oct. 14 and 15. Wild animals overrun that district.

WEATHER FORECAST.
 Generally fair weather; possi-

The receipts of cotton at New Orleans Tuesday and the aggregate receipts at all points were the largest on record. The number of bales received at New Orleans was 54,433, and the total was 88,572.

"A REPUBLICAN triumph can be achieved if sufficient funds can be had to vigorously prosecute the campaign," said the Chairman of the Republican State Committee in Ohio, in a private letter some days ago. As the G. O. P. organs over there are now claiming 60,000 majority for McKinley, the committee must have received big money.

THE SILVER PANIC.

I deem it proper at the outset to state that the recent panic was not the result of overtrading, undue speculation, or the violation of business principles throughout the country. In my judgment it is to be attributed to unwise legislation with respect to the Silver question; it will be known in history as "the Silver panic," and will constitute a reproach and an accusation against the common sense if not the common honesty of our legislation who are responsible for our present monetary laws. Observers abroad and clear-headed financiers at home predicted with absolute certainty the disasters which have overtaken us, and no great prophetic vision was required to anticipate the conditions which have so recently prevailed throughout the United States.—(Charles S. Smith, (Rep.) President Chamber of Commerce, in North American Review).

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Under the new city charter, the next Board of Education shall consist of twelve Trustees, two from each ward. They will be elected next Tuesday by the voters of the city at large. If the people exercise good judgment, the new board will be composed of intelligent, capable men throughout. "The success or failure of our public schools," says the Winchester Democrat, "rests largely with the Board of Trustees. It is their duty to provide and keep in repair suitable buildings, employ teachers, provide for the comfort and welfare of the children, manage the finances and have general supervision over the public educational interests of the city. If the administration is honest, capable, intelligent and conservative, our schools will continue to improve; otherwise the reverse is sure to be the result. * * * The mental, moral and physical training of our children is at stake. Let us entrust it only to those who are competent and worthy."

J. B. HILES.

John Breckinridge Hiles, the Democratic nominee for Representative from Bracken County, was born at Wellsburg, Bracken County, January 15, 1859. He is the son of Asa A. Hiles, a leading farmer, merchant and tobacco dealer of Bracken County, and is associated with his father in the leaf tobacco business at Johnsville. The firm has a wide reputation for fair dealing and honesty.

In 1885 he was given the Democratic nomination for County Assessor one week before the election, to which office he was elected by a handsome majority. He served out the term with great credit and to the satisfaction of all. October 6, 1886, on the recommendation of ex-Senator James B. Beck, he was appointed a railroad postal clerk, and was assigned to duty on the Cincinnati Southern.

Shortly afterwards he was detailed as Trip Report Clerk in the Superintendent's office, Railway Mail Service, at Cincinnati, and was the last Democrat removed from that office in 1889. He is now President of the Ex-Railway Mail Clerks' Association, composed of 350 ex-mail clerks in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, removed by ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker in violation of civil service rules. He is a tried and true Democrat, and will be elected by a handsome majority over his opponent, who is a rock-ribbed Republican.

DOES IT PAY TO FEED WHEAT TO HOGS?

Editor Bulletin: I had 110 bushels of wheat ground and fed to forty-two hogs. Thirty-two of the number when I commenced feeding weighed 101 pounds per head; ten older hogs 192 pounds per head.

They gauled on the wheat 1,844 pounds, which at 5/4cents per pound would give $101.42 for the 140 bushels of wheat fed. Yours Respectfully,
 JAMES C. CORD, Wedonia, Ky.

REVENUE-RECEIPTS.

A Drop of 25 Per Cent. From October of Last Year.

The total collections of internal revenue in the Seventh district for October, Collector Shelby's first month, amounted to $119,922.49, a loss of $41,940.64 over the corresponding month of last year. This loss is accounted for, however, by the fact that no whisky has been forced out of bond. The collections from July 1 to October 31 show a gain of $35,895.61 over the first four months of the last fiscal year.

The collections are given as follows:

Lists.....	907 86
Beer.....	83 25
Spirits.....	115,584 50
Cigars.....	908 90
Tobacco.....	1,831 65
Special taxes.....	611 34
Total.....	$119,922 49

May Make Coal Cheaper.

An important step that will result in uncalculable good to the people of Cincinnati, St. Louis and other river ports was taken by the Chamber of Commerce at Pittsburg Tuesday. The Rivers and Harbors Committee made a report on the proposition to establish reservoirs and slack-water dams along the Ohio river. The idea is to make a coal-boating stage all the year around. The report was a lengthy one, and contained resolutions that the Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania request that a clause for a special appropriation of $10,000 be placed in the Congressional Rivers and Harbors bill to be presented this winter. The money is to be used for a preliminary survey of the Ohio and Little Kanawha rivers for the location of the deep water reservoirs. Copies of the report and resolutions were ordered forwarded to Cincinnati, St. Louis and other cities, and that the latter be asked to take the subject up. It is estimated that the reservoir can be constructed for $1,000,000 and the water turned into the river to float coal at little expense. If the scheme goes through coal will cost considerably less at all points on the Ohio river.

For the Farmer.

Winchester Sun: "John B. Embry, agent for Nelson Morris, of Chicago, bought of S. D. Goff 407 head of cattle, average 1,600 pounds, 200 head at 5 cents, the balance at a shade less per pound; of A. R. Sphar seventy-four head of extra Christmas cattle, average 1,600 pounds, at 5 cents, and of Robert Gay forty-five head, average 1,525 pounds, at 4 1/2 cents."

Breeders' Gazette: "Hog-killing times is not far off, and it may just now be a good time to say that any man who has a job of this kind on his hands will save time as well as worry, all of which means money, by investing a dime in a thermometer, and then when it comes to scalding the hogs see that the temperature is just about 180 degrees, which is thirty-two degrees below the boiling point. This is just hot enough to make the hair come off, but not so hot as to "set" it, as is often done."

The World's Fair at Home.

The attraction to be presented at the opera house to-night is that funny comedy, "Zeb," "a home-like picture framed in fun." One of the principal scenic effects is the World's Fair scene which necessitates carrying 16,280 feet of scenery. It will be a like-like picture of principal buildings and the Midway Plaisance, also representing the movable sidewalk. In this scene one can recall many a pleasant hour, those that visited Chicago, and those that did not will have a better chance of getting an idea of the magnificence and magnitude of the World's Fair buildings than by reading columns, as it will be a reproduction on canvas. Admission, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Tickets at Nelson's.

Last of the Season.

Attorney General Hendrick's Good Work.

The Owensboro Inquirer says: "It was Jack Hendrick's opinion that led to the institution of the suits against the Kentucky railroads for the back taxes. As the recovery, according to the mandates of the Court of Appeals, will put about $100,000 in the State Treasury, it will be seen that Jack has been a very profitable investment, and has paid for himself many times over."

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

REV. R. G. WILDER, Princeton, N. J., says:—"I find nothing helps so much to keep me in working condition as Simmons Liver Regulator."

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

Is the Amount in Damage That Noble H. Richardson Wants From Thomas Allison.

Late yesterday afternoon Attorney Adna A. Wadsworth stepped over to the Circuit Clerk's office and filed the petition of Noble H. Richardson, of Charleston Bottom, against Thomas Allison, of Washington, in which the plaintiff sues for $5,000 damage for alleged libel.

The suit grows out of an incident that occurred in the much celebrated Bramel will contest at the June term of court. Richardson was a juror and the trial had been in progress about one week. Allison's wife was a party interested in the result of the trial.

One morning the attorneys for the will created somewhat of a sensation in court by filing their affidavits and also stating orally to the court that information had come to them that Mr. Richardson and Mr. Allison had been seen in close conversation and under circumstances that compelled the attorneys to bring the matter to the attention of the court. Judge Harbeson gave the jury a curt lecture about violating the instructions of the court not to permit any one to talk to them or in their presence about the case on trial and peremptorily discharged the entire jury. He also issued a rule for contempt against both Richardson and Allison. On the hearing of this rule the court exonerated Allison and fined Richardson $30 and sent him to the County Jail for ten hours. The fine was afterwards remitted by Judge Harbeson on motion of Commonwealth's Attorney Salce.

Both Allison and Richardson filed written responses under oath to the rule and both testified orally about the rumored contempt of the court's instructions. It is this written response of Mr. Allison's and his oral testimony that Mr. Richardson says was untrue and libelous and has damaged him in reputation and character in the sum of $5,000.

The petition especially characterizes as untrue and libelous the sworn statement by Mr. Allison that Mr. Richardson first approached him about the case by saying, in substance, "We are old neighbors and I am with you in the trial."

The suit comes somewhat in the nature of a surprise and is much regretted on all sides, as both men are prominent farmers with extensive kinship. The filing of the petition is the beginning of a bitter legal fight.

THERE used to be a parrot kept at a ropewalk in Washington some years ago that showed remarkable intelligence. It would be set to watch the hands while at work, and would report any that did not do their duty. When the boss would come in the parrot always had a report to make, such as, "Shep. has been laying in the shade," or "Anthony has been out of the walk." When in the kitchen the bird would keep an eye open for omissions or commissions on the part of the cook, whose name was Liz, and who was not scrupulously honest. He frequently had to report that "Liz. hasn't sent all the bread in yet," or "Liz. hid some of the biscuits under the stove." The parrot lost his life when the rope walk burned in 1850.

SAYS the Ripley Bee: "John Gray raised 1,000 bushels of tomatoes from about two acres of ground, this season, and sold them to the Ripley Canning Company, bringing more money than the same ground would have brought him in tobacco; and the drought cut the crop nearly one-half short. He realized $200 from the crop."

SOME idea of the enormous proportions the business of hotel-keeping has assumed in this country may be gained from the fact that there are in the United States upwards of 50,000 hotels, exclusive of what may be properly termed inns and taverns and what are commonly known as apartment houses, although the latter are as hotels, in that they have a common kitchen and dining-room.

THE Cincinnati Post says: "Of late numerous thefts and small robberies have been going on in student quarters and private houses at Ada, O. Three students of respectable families, C. D. Ellis, of Manchester, O., Harry Curtiss, of Columbus, Ind., and Dick Davis, of Plain City, O., were placed under arrest and are in jail. A gold watch and a diamond pin, stolen some time ago, were found in the possession of Davis."

FAYETTE County's lands lead the assessment list in average value, $93.40 per acre. Bourbon County comes next with $48.93; Kenton, $47.17; Jefferson, $45.99; Campbell, $38.89; Mason, $37.31; Clark, $33.30; Boyle, $33.20. In total value of lands, Fayette County heads the list with $10,770,340. Jefferson coming next with $10,199,171, and Bourbon $8,823,553. These three are the wealthiest counties in the State. Clark, Madison, Mason, Scott, Shelby and Woodford each show a little over five millions as the value of their lands. In the whole Commonwealth there are 25,089,848 acres, valued at $247,122,161, with an average value of $9.84. The lowest valuation in the State, $2.36 per acre, is on the lands in Martin County.

NOVEMBER WEDDINGS.

Four Marriage Licenses Issued Yesterday and Eight Young People Made Happy.

November is the ideal month for weddings, and the County Clerk was called on four different times yesterday to issue marriage license. The first license was to Robert Pinkard and Miss Sarah Case, of Germantown. They were married at the Clerk's office by County Judge Phister.

Next came Robert H. Poe and Miss Mary F. Dillon, both of Mason County, who were also united in marriage at the Clerk's office by Judge Phister.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the Clerk issued a license to D. Sam White, of Bernard, and Miss Ella J. Poe, of Pekin, Ill. They were married soon afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Winter, on Court street, in the presence of a few relatives, and left for the groom's home near Maysville. Rev. J. J. Gorby, of Linwood, Cincinnati, came up to officiate at the wedding, but as he was not authorized by law to solemnize marriages in Kentucky, Dr. John S. Hayes was called in to pronounce the ceremony. Miss Poe is a daughter of Mrs. Susan Poe, and her father, the late Ezekiel Poe, formerly lived near Germantown.

The fourth couple to marry yesterday came in last night from Fleming County, and got Dr. P. G. Smoot to assist them in hunting up the County Clerk. They were D. E. Belt and Miss Belle McDonald. They were married at the Central Hotel by County Judge Phister.

Four weddings on the first day of the month is a good start for the Clerk and the Judge, and there are more to follow.

Sam Jones on Senators.

Sam Jones writes to the Atlanta Herald:

"I see the Senate is still vaporizing and delaying.

"If I had a pack of hounds that run a fox like the United States Senate chases legislation, I would lose interest in the fox and go dog hunting and go home dogless.

"I'd rather have no dogs than some kind of dogs.

"Why don't they do something? A hundred hens cackling in the barn lot and not an egg laid! I would eat hens and do without eggs for the balance of the year.

"Let that august body do something or resign, and let us send somebody to Washington who will act, who will repeal or confirm.

"They can't dicker and piddle and vaporize much longer without disaster to the country, and we will make them smoke for their conduct when they get home and wait indorsement by re-election.

"Is it not about time we had a new deal, anyway? We can't be worsted much in any sort of a deal.

"Shades of Webster, Clay and Calhoun! Comparisons are odious. But I suppose the little fellows in the United States Senate to-day are doing as much according to their sizes as the giants of old did. Size determines ability. Wheelbarrows can't carry like locomotives and box cars. The space between a lion and a cur is wide. To whom little is given, of him little will be expected."

Rev. Elisha Green's Funeral

The funeral of Rev. Elisha W. Green, colored, will occur to-morrow afternoon at the Bethel Baptist Church, of which he has been pastor for fifty years. Rev. Geo. W. Dupuy, D. D., of Paducah, will officiate. Friends can view the remains from 10 to 12 o'clock at the church.

ACCORDING to Secretary Speer, the Endeavor Societies of the Presbyterian Church gave to the missions of that denomination in 1890-91, $5,910; in 1891-92, $13,333; in 1892-93, $24,568. They are now asked to give, during the current year, at least $60,000.

How would it have answered had the framers of the Separate Coach law worded it somewhat differently and made it "separate coaches for white people?" It might be that this would not have proven so offensive to the colored citizens.

THE FAIR A GREAT SUCCESS.

What Would It Have Been Had Not Times Been Hard?

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—In closing the world's Columbian exposition, the officials find themselves in a condition which, compared to that confronting them May 1, is remarkable, and is the best evidence of the success of the fair. With a surplus in the hands of Treasurer Zebege of which any corporation might feel proud, with all its debts paid and the world applauding what has been done, the directors may look back six months with great complacency. Speaking of the present financial condition of the exposition company Vice President F. W. Peck said:

"We will close our books for the six months of the actual expense of the fair with a cash balance of about $2,500,000. I think that I may truthfully say that our good assets, not counting, of course, cash we have on hand, are nearly double our unsettled accounts. When we contrast this condition with that which faced us on the morning of May 1, we are compelled to congratulate ourselves and our stockholders. Truly the exposition has been a success in every sense. When the fair opened we owned not far from $3,000,000. This was a floating debt of nearly $3,500,000, and we owed on the face of the bonds issued one year ago $4,444,500.

"Pausing now for a moment of retrospection, it is pleasant to think what our success would have been had we not been compelled to contend against hard times, amounting almost to a financial panic throughout the country. Since May we have wiped out that indebtedness, have paid our running expenses, and have a balance on hand, which guarantees some return to the stockholders.

"The history of the fair has been a complete vindication of the business methods of the directors two years ago. The concessions will have paid into the treasury of the world's fair cash to the amount of $3,500,000. In Paris in 1889 the concessions were operated on the cash basis and they paid to the exposition about $700,000. And so, with an attendance slightly smaller than that at Paris, we have collected five times the amount of money.

"I calculate that the receipts of the exposition company from the gates and the few concessions that will remain will aid in meeting expenses hereafter. In making an estimate of the receipts for the future I have made no allowance for the salvage. Times are constantly improving and if we are given an opportunity I am sure we will be able to secure something near the value for whatever buildings we may sell. It would be unfair to the stockholders of the exposition to destroy these buildings immediately. In conclusion I wish you would congratulate for me the stockholders, the people of Chicago and the nation upon the success of this, the world's greatest exposition."

NICARAGUAN NEWS.

An Article of the New Constitution Hampers Foreigners.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 2.—The Nicaraguan assembly has passed an article of the new constitution which has been framed especially to hamper foreigners.

By its terms they will be obliged to pay forced loans to the government whenever levied, and any and all extraordinary taxes which the government may see fit to lay upon them.

If any foreigner resident here should be so bold as to make a claim of any kind against the government he will be exiled at once.

The article may be construed, moreover, to subject resident foreigners to military service.

Anarchists Released.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—David John Nicoll, formerly editor of The Commonwealth, anarchist paper, who was sentenced May 6, 1892, to 18 months' imprisonment for inciting to murder, was released from the Chelmsford prison, where he had served his sentence. At the time of his conviction the anarchists expressed deep indignation, and mass meetings were held to protest against the injustice of his sentence, which, it is claimed, was due to a police conspiracy. When he was released, there was no one except his wife at the prison to meet him. Together they proceeded to London. A large mass-meeting of anarchists will be held here Friday to welcome him. All the leading London anarchists will be present.

Mysteriously Poisoned.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Etta Semple and her son Avery, living at 714 Seventh street in this city, were mysteriously poisoned last night. The son died in the morning at 10 o'clock and the mother's condition is critical. The affair is shrouded in the deepest mystery and the family refuse to give any information whatever. Morphine is thought to have been the agent. Coroner McCulloch is pushing the investigation, but will not be able to gather sufficient evidence to hold an inquest for a day or two at least.

Both Doing Well.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Thomas Bradley, the crank who shot Superintendent Matthews in the new Postal Telegraph building on Monday, was resting well in the prison ward of Bellevue hospital yesterday. He will not be able to leave the hospital, it is said, for a week or 10 days. Superintendent Matthews was reported to be improving at the Chambers street hospital.

Finally Identified.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Addison M. Hahn, a lawyer, who formerly lived in Garden City, Kan., where he was considered quite wealthy, committed suicide by jumping into the Delaware river here last Sunday. The body was not identified until yesterday. Hahn was well known here, having lived in this city before he moved to Kansas.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Loewenthal & Frank Brothers, manufacturers of shirts and underclothing, made an assignment here late yesterday evening. The liabilities are $50,000, and the assets will, it is claimed, cover this. The banks of this city are made preferred creditors. It is said the firm will come out of their difficulty all right if given time.

An Unruly Artesian Well.
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—An artesian well at Schneidemühl, a town of Prussia, on the Kuddowa, which overflowed in June and threatened to devastate the country, has again burst, and an immense volume of water, mixed with sand, is pouring from the opening. Herr Beyer, an expert on mineral springs, has been summoned from Berlin to superintend the repairing of the damage.

British in Africa.
JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 2.—All the forces of the British South Africa company, together with 1,500 native allies under Chief Khama, are converging on Hope Fountain, where the Matabeles are concentrating. Hope Fountain lies south of Bulawayo, King Lobengula's kraal, and the Matabeles must make a decisive stand here or allow Bulawayo to be captured.

Takamine Will Try It Again.
PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 2.—Two more distilleries are about to start up here, one of them being the Manhattan. It will be turned over to Jokichi Takamine, the Japanese chemist, to make a test of his process of distilling. A test was begun last June, but Mr. Takamine's illness, from which he has just recovered, interfered with its completion.
